
Emergency First Response + PADI Rescue Diver

Requirement

12 years old or above, good physical health & holding an Advanced Open Water Diver Certificate and Emergency First Response Certificate or have an equivalent qualifications (A minimum of 20 logged dives is required for another training organizations)

Course Structure

This diving course is undertaken by qualified and experienced instructors belonging to the world's leading scuba divers' education organization, PADI. It develops your knowledge and skills so you can effectively perform diver assists and rescues, manages diving accident situation and render first aid. Upon completion of this course, certificate will be awarded and you will become an internationally recognized rescue diver.

Course includes

- 6 Academic Training;
- 1 Day Pool Water Training and 1 Day Open Water Training (Shore) or 2 Days Open Water Training (Shore Dive)

Course Fee

Emergency First Response HK$1,000

Rescue Diver course HK$3,300

Only HK$4,000, Special Discount for combination the EFR+Rescue course.

Price includes

- (1) PADI Course Manuel
- (2) Academic Training Fee;
- (3) Pool/Confined Water Training Fee;
- (4) Open Water Training Fee;
- (5) Weight & Tanks;
- (6) PADI Rescue Diver Certificate

